

DARE

discernment & radical engagement

DAY 1

Africa & Europe Panelists

Fri Oct 30, 2020

7:00-8:30pm (Zambia time)

daring God-talk: what is normal?

Can grief, mourning and rage be helpful? Is it possible to live amidst the infinite present wrought upon us by this current pandemic?

JULIANNA CLASSENS

< An Infinite Present: Theology as Resistance amidst Pandemics >

TAT-SIONG BENNY LIEW

< Good grief: Mourning as Remembrance and Protest >

DOROTHEA ERBELE-KÜSTER

< "Today I let my rage be beautiful": Poet(h)ical Responses to Crisis in the New Normal and in the Hebrew Bible >

DARE

discernment & radical engagement

DAY 2

Africa & Europe Panelists

Sat Oct 31, 2020

7:00-8:30pm (Zambia time)

Register now!
Limited slots

daring God-talk: what is normal?

How do we understand the body in the context of the pandemic? How might we speak of sacred matters in the context of Covid-19? What should we do, seeing that Covid-19 has brought the future into the present?

ANNA KASAFI PERKINS

< 'We put off this mortal coil': The Body in COVID >

JAMES PERKINSON

< Coronavirus Cacophony: When the Dwarf Rebukes the Giants >

MIGUEL ALGRANTI

< Pandemos >

DARE

discernment & radical engagement

DAY 3

Africa & Europe Panelists

Sun Nov 1, 2020

7:00-8:30pm (Zambia time)

Register now!
Limited slots

daring God-talk: what is normal?

With social distancing measures in place, how do we deal with our differences? What might a post Covid-19 society and church look like?

WANDA DEIFELT

< Covid-19
Solidarity Assurance: Reality, Faith and Action >

TINYIKO MALULEKE

< Giving the Earth a Rest: Preparing for a Post-Covid
Future >

